

ILI Council 2007-2008

The Council and sub-committees of the Irish Landscape Institute were selected at the Annual General Meeting (AGM) held in the Architectural Archive, Merrion Square, Dublin on July 18th. Deirdre Black was appointed as President. On appointment Deirdre thanked her predecessor Aidan French for his immense contribution to the Institute over the previous two years.

The Council of the ILI has been expanded from to 11 persons, to accommodate the expanding brief and activities of the Institute. Mark Boyle remains as Secretary, as does Tim Austen in the role of Honorary Treasurer. Kieran O'Neill and Tony Williams continue as council members and are joined for the first time by; Margaret Egan, Daibhi Mac Domhnaill, Daithi O'Troithigh and Mette Roesegaard. Tony Williams remains on the Education sub-committee where he is joined by Dermot Foley. Daibhi Mac Domhnaill and Mark Boyle remain on the Editorial Committee and are joined by D. O'Troithigh and M. Roesgaard. Margaret Egan remains in her role as Sponsorship Officer. The ILI delegation to the Urban Forum for 2007 will be; David Bagnall, Dr. Christy Boylan and Aidan J French. Thomas Burns and Lucy Carey will continue to oversee the annual Professional Practice Examinations.
